6.1.1 – Mention two practices of decentralization and participative management during the last year (maximum 500 words)

The college administration decentralizes all academic and administrative matters by constituting various committees consisting teachers and student representatives with specific objectives to achieve the vision of the college. In decision-making process every member of the committees are given complete freedom to express their views/opinions and those views/opinion are well taken for the improvement of the college functions. The Principal leads the institution towards its goals, by planning the activities of the institution, forming committees, delegating powers to the Professor in-charge of the committees, motivating and encouraging the committees to excel in their tasks, monitoring the progress and evaluating the success of all the tasks and projects. Apart from that the principal communicates all significant information to all the stakeholders and maintains records of all the functions of the institution. Decisions about the budget, maintaining the accounts of all expenditure and preparing the audit report annually with the help of the accountant and the administrative staff is also accomplished by the Principal. The Faculty under the guidance of the Principal is responsible for the academic functioning of the college, by being part of a number of specialized committees that work with a high degree of efficiency with considerable autonomy and initiative. The administration is decentralized in a democratic way. Various committees are formed. HODs, teaching, non-teaching staff, students, community members, alumni, parents, students work as representatives. They plan, implement and evaluate the different programmes with the help of principal and professors in-charge. Everyone complete the assigned work successfully. The committee secretaries are given academic, administrative and financial freedom for well-functioning. The different committees were formed for the successful implementation of the activities. The total program was executed as per the democratic and decentralization system of our college. All the faculties in our college were actively participated in each and every activity.
